

Allison Van Schindel, a District 31 resident who attends Northern Suburban Special Education District classes at Springman Middle School in District 34, was the recent recipient of an Infinitec North Technology Achievement Award. She was recognized for her use of the assistive technology Dyna Write keyboard that transfers her written words to voice output for communication with teachers and peers in her classes.