

Hot shots

Compiled by ANN GERBER

Taking chances for United Cerebral Palsy

Gambling has long been the catalyst for supporters of the fight against cerebral palsy to raise money for research and needed programs. More than $200,000 was the result of 350 guests having fun at a Hilton dinner. Here are pix from the United Cerebral Palsy successful event.

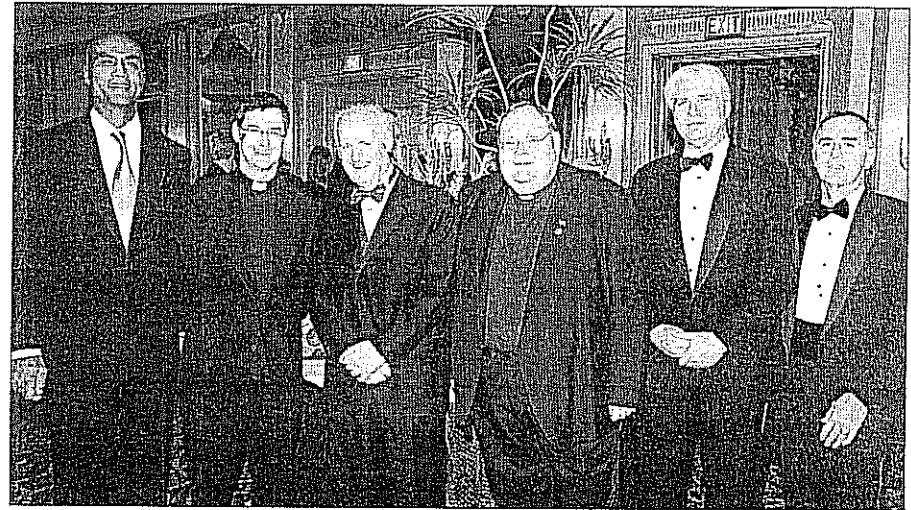

(above) Infinite Hope Award recipient Kevin Burke, with wife Mary Grace and brother Tim. (below) Emcee Tracy Butler with scholarship winner Albert Nutall

Women's board president Deborah Lahey with family

UCP women's board members at the gala included Emily Chardell, Suzi Brooks, Laura Durudogan, Robin Boushie, Michele Thompson and seated, president and CEO of UCP, Paul Dulle.

Marti DeGraaf, right, with guests