

A Worthwhile Effort

Used computers, monitors, mice and keyboards fill up the front drive of Glenbrook South High School in Glenview Saturday as members of the school's Interact Club and volunteers ready equipment for shipping. The recycling drive was held to benefit the United Cerebral Palsy organization of Chicago and students with disabilities. In lower right photo, Interact Club member Casey Frink lends a hand.

(Tom Wessell/The Journal)

