

FEBRUARY 7, 2007

502
VOLUNTEERS

Check out the Volunteer Center Web site www.oprfvolunteercenter.org or call Susan Stearns (708) 386-3393 to schedule an appointment to look at the binders in the office. The Volunteer Center is at 1111 South Blvd., Oak Park. It has a wide variety of opportunities to match your interests or abilities.

Oak Park's Maze Library is looking for chess lovers to help teach chess to youth from 4-6 p.m. Mondays at the library, 845 Gunderson.

Oak Park's Dole Library is seeking volunteers to teach knitting and crocheting to youth from 2:30-3:30 p.m. Wednesdays at the library, 255 Augusta St. Share your talents with a new generation.

Village Players needs volunteers to help with office tasks, stage sets, costume design and construction, lighting, sound design and production, make-up design and application, ushering and crew work for all productions.

The Hemingway Foundation, which includes the Hemingway Museum, Bookstore and Birthplace Home, needs volunteers to help as receptionist, tour guide, gift shop clerk and clerical persons.

Sarah's Inn, serving abused women and their families, has scheduled their 40-hour mandatory training which enables volunteers to perform direct client contact tasks. Training begins Tuesday, March 13, and continues through April 21.

City of Chicago Animal Care and Control is looking for volunteers to help as adoption aides, for lost pet tours, as greeters and for data entry. Volunteers must be 18 years or older.

The United Cerebral Palsy Levinson Center needs volunteers to help with hand/leg massage for adults with cerebral palsy, special art projects, yoga and stretching classes, manicures and pedicures and fund-raising help. Assistance also is needed at meal times, for community outings and computer help. On-site orientation is provided.

Madden Mental Health Center, Maywood, needs help with beautification projects at the facility; exit interviews with patients; special event planning; organization for clothing and book drives; and setting up the clothing room.

Oak Park Healthcare continues to look for someone who speaks Lithuanian who could converse with one of the residents and make the resident feel more at home. In addition, the facility would like volunteers to help with activities, front desk reception, friendly one-on-one visiting and clerical help.

Cluster Tutoring, with sites in the Austin area and Oak Park, desperately needs volunteers to serve the many students who presently are on a waiting list. Students to be